NOTE: A search of the indices to our central records system at FBI Headquarters revealed cross-references to your subject. A cross-reference is defined as a mention of your subject in a file on another individual, organization, event, activity or the like. In processing cross-references, the pages considered for possible release include only those pages which mention your subject and any additional pages showing the context in which your subject is mentioned. When such a page also contains information about another subject matter, the information "outside the scope" of the request is marked with "o/s" in the margin and bracketed. Whenever possible, the o/s material is released; however, it is withheld if consultation with another government agency would be required or if it is otherwise exempt from disclosure. For your information, the exemptions that apply to the material had it been within the scope of your request has also been noted on the document.

Your attention is called to the attached two clippings concerning PAUL A. TONEMAN appearing in the Star and Times Herald of this date.

transported MAHLETT UNDERWOOD WASHINGTON from Washington, D.C. to Chicago and had represented to her that he was an Agent of the FBI and further you pointed out the fact that the subject appeared to be on rather good terms with MRS. ROOSEVELT to the extent that MRS. ROOSEVELT had endorsed a loan for [REDACTED] at the Hamilton National Bank in the amount of $2000 and information had been developed indicating that this note had not been taken care of by [REDACTED] and that MRS. ROOSEVELT had paid the note as endorser. Your memorandum further points out that TONEMAN is believed to be TONEMAN was at that time serving time in the State Prison for bad checks that he had passed during the promotion of the scheme. Your memorandum further makes reference to the fact that TONEMAN, during March of 1936, had applied for a position with the Bureau and that his applicant file reflects the receipt of correspondence from that time up to January of 1942.

Further reflects a considerable amount of correspondence written by TONEMAN addressed to the Director on various subjects.

THIS MEMORANDUM IS FOR ADMINISTRATIVE PURPOSES TO BE DESTROYED AFTER ACTION IS TAKEN AND NOT SENT TO FILES
MRS. R.'S FRIEND GETS 1 TO 3 YEARS

Paul A. Toneman, 32, once a White House favorite of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, was sentenced to serve one to three years in prison by District Court Justice Holtzoff today for mail fraud and false pretenses. The lanky, blond, self-styled public relations counsel was convicted last week of duping a Los Angeles export firm official.
Judge Gives Toneman 1-to-3-Year Sentence

Paul A. Toneman, 31, was sentenced in District Court today to serve from one to three years in prison on his conviction last week on charges of false pretenses and using the mails to defraud.

Justice Alexander Holtschoff ordered the sentence to begin after Toneman finishes a term of from four months to a year for embezzlement.

Toneman was found guilty of obtaining $2,000 from a Los Angeles businessman under the pretense of obtaining an export license to send sugar from the United States to China.

Justice Holtschoff said Toneman had obtained $1,500 on the pretense of giving a Government official a Christmas present.

Divorce Week

Last week, amid a swarm of holiday conventions, the U.S. Youth Movement reduced itself to an absurdity. It was a week of currency debate about war & peace, of quarrels among friends and enemies. Thus from it emerged a fact that the recent heyday of the American Youth Congress had obscured—youth differ among themselves just as much as with their elders. At week’s end, its differences clarified, Youth sought itself into a variety of organizations and galloped ardently in all directions.

This line-up, running from left to right:

- American Student Union, organized in 1908 by Communists, Socialists and maverick liberals, by last week had lost most of its fellow travelers, was left mostly Communist. The remnant’s oldest cry: no aid to Britain. Because Eleanor Roosevelt had advocated compulsory youth work camps, delegates last week divorced her (by mutual consent). They also damned the U.S. ally itself with China and the Soviet Union, wired President Roosevelt: YOU CAN’T PULL A WILSON ON US.

- Youth Committee Against War was formed two years ago by Socialist sectarians from A.S.U. It convened in Madison, Wis., got a cool welcome, Barred from the University of Wisconsin (of which conspiracy’s Director Cheener Blodgett is president) and the First Congregational Church, the convention eventually met in a hotel, heard an isolationist speech by Senator Burton K. Wheeler, demanded repeal of conscription.

- Student League for Progressive Action was a staged last week by another group of A.S.U. sectarians, led by “liberals” from Harvard and Swarthmore. This group introduced itself at a joint conference of International Student Service and the National Student Federation in New Brunswick, N. J. The League’s platform: aid short-of-war to Britain and China, support of the New Deal, a demand that Britain clarify her war aims.

American Student Defense League was recently started at Harvard. At the New Brunswick conference last week it announced its expansion to six other colleges. Its program: aid abroad to Britain, regardless of risk of war.

- International Student Service, Miss. Roosevelt’s new friend, is a 20-year-old relief agency which last fall reorganized itself (TIME, Sept. 23). Its joint conference with National Student Federation was heralded in the Community’s News as “The Plot Against Youth.” But its conference turned out to be more plotted against that plotting. First leftists tried to pack its meeting, were repulsed. Then the two new Leagues (above) used its platform to announce themselves. At week’s end, I. S. S. S. T. S. to join forces with N. S. F., by offering it a subsidy, was rebuffed on the ground that its offer was “not altruistic.”

National Student Federation itself is a long-established organization of college student councils, made its first plunge into politics six years ago when it helped found the American Youth Congress. Last week it reconsidered. Despite a plea by A. Y. C. Executive Secretary Frances Williams, who buttered about a A. Y. C. was mistaken: but nevertheless it made the funds “come from Moscow.” N. S. F. voted 77-24 to withdraw from A. Y. C. because of its “unworthy reputation” and because it was “not representative.” N. S. F. also plumped for full economic aid to Britain.

- National Foundation for American Youth is Gene’s—Queen’s—five-month-old arch-foe of the Youth Congress. It recently published a handbook for youth called “How to Stop the Junior Fifth Column.”

- Day after New Year, some undergraduates went back to their campuses to study.

Schrock’s Gift

 Clarence Schrock is short, stocky and devout, looks like a Pennsylvania Dutch Dr. Dobbs, Fifty-three years ago he started an oil business with his father in Mt. Joy, near Lancaster, Pa. Now Schrock Independent Oil Co. has 14 wholesale plants and a dozen gasoline service stations, is valued at $5,000,000.

Recently Mr. Schrock, 72, became concerned about the future of 2) his business, 3) his money, Trust in money, it’s childless. Moreover, he believes that the system of inheritance is un-Christian. “If we abolish all inheritance of property and if we fix a limit to earning power,” he often said. “we would be able to solve all our economic problems. . . . After reasonable provision for women & children, a man’s estate should go to the general welfare.”

Mr. Schrock cast about for a scheme to ensure perpetuation of his business and put his money to Christian employment. Last week he thought he had one. He converted his business into a trust and provided that, except for a modest living for himself and wife, its income should go to public schools in the districts served by his company (mostly in Lancaster, York and Dauphin Counties). There were no strings on how the money should be used. But each school district’s share depended on two things: 1) the number of its pupils 2) the amount of all its citizens bought from Schrock Independent Oil Co.

The more oil taxpayers bought, the more SICO would prosper, and the more Schrock was saved from the burden of supporting their schools. Last week he sent to 62 school boards in Lancaster County the first installment of profits from his new trust. The gifts totalled $20,000, ranged from $50.25 to $5,497.96.

Said Mr. Schrock: “I have no axe to grind. . . . If the public continues to patronize the company, the sum will be abundant.”

DETAILS:
On October 1, 1945, [Redacted information] in Saint Louis, was contacted, where it was learned that [Redacted information] had rented Assembly Hall No. 2, for the night of October 4, 1945. An examination of the rental agreement disclosed that the hall was rented in the name of the AMERICA FIRST PARTY and was signed by [Redacted information]. Informants report that [Redacted information] is actually in Saint Louis. The rental agreement called for the payment of $60.00 with an additional $10.00 charge for the services of a public address system operator. The agreement contained a statement, "It is understood there will be no admission charge and no literature sold." This rental agreement was dated September 17, 1945.
messages sent between ROOSEVELT and CHURCHILL and that the full story will be told when KENT returns to this country.

The Saint Louis Star-Times newspaper on October 5, 1945 reported SMITH's talk on the previous night. The newspaper article, a copy of which is being retained in __________ reported that SMITH orated for more than two hours and that he didn't stop until his followers had finished taking a collection in paper shopping bags. The newspaper reported the "Six foot, slightly paunchy, rabble rouser admitted he was a good speaker, and, as the shopping bags were being passed, told his listeners that they had gotten their money's worth." SMITH told them, according to the newspaper, that they would have to pay $1.65 to hear ELEANOR ROOSEVELT and that he, SMITH, was twice as good a speaker as Mrs. ROOSEVELT. In taking the collection, the newspaper reported, SMITH told the audience not to give "chicken feed", that if they could give only a nickel or something like that, that they should not give it, but should come up front and be would give them a nickel. The newspaper account also reported the distribution of the circulars but the newspapers apparently were not aware of the fact that the circulars were being distributed by Communists.

The Star-Times reported that as SMITH entered the Auditorium that evening, Private First Class, ED BROWN of San Francisco, a member of the Eighth Infantry Division, handed SMITH a circular and said, "Mr. SMITH, read this. Here is what we veterans think of you."

The Star-Times also reported that SMITH had interspersed his talk with a tax on the Star-Times. They reported that he denounced "This mangy Star-Times, this left-winger, this stooge of Stalin, this cur of journalism."
The Star-Times also quoted SMITH as saying that what he had to tell on the next night in the closed meeting at the DeSoto Hotel would be so hot that it would burn up the carpet under his feet.

Informants __________ and __________ both reported that all during his talk SMITH appeared to be talking to Lutherans who were present. At one point in his talk SMITH proceeded to scold the Lutherans for not being more pronounced in their feelings against the Star-Times. He is reported to have said, "Shame on you, you yellow Lutherans for allowing the Star-Times to smear that young students."
This statement was made when SMITH was making reference to the Rev. LAWRENCE REILLY.

At one point in his talk SMITH mentioned that J. EDGAR HOOVER, director of the FBI, had arrested some well known Communists and found records buried in Detroit. Although he did not make a direct statement, SMITH did indicate that he knew what these records contain and apparently wanted to leave the general impression that the FBI had nothing against SMITH. SMITH also stated that CHARLES CHAPLIN of Hollywood is one of the biggest contributors to the Communist Party. SMITH also stated, "Thank God that WALLACE was not elected Vice-President."
On October 5, 1945, Mr. O. P. GREATHOUSE of the DeSoto Hotel, advised the Saint Louis office that FRANZKIG, a leader of the Veterans of Foreign Wards, had put considerable pressure on Mr. GREATHOUSE in an effort to get him to cancel the contract with SMITH for the use of the sixteenth floor of that hotel. Mr. GREATHOUSE advised that he consulted his attorneys and was told that there were no legal grounds upon which he could cancel the contract without incurring a definite liability for breach of contract.

Confidential Informant furnished the Saint Louis office with several tickets to the October 5 meeting and attended the meeting personally. Informant reported that during this meeting SMITH kept saying, "Believe me, I know." Many of SMITH's statements were general in nature and he attempted to convince the audience by merely making the above statement. SMITH advised the audience of approximately 350 persons that the Warner Brothers in Hollywood were great Communists. SMITH told the audience that he did not want them to read between the lines but that instead they should read between the lies.

SMITH introduced Rev. WESLEY A. SMITH, whose name was thought by this Informant to be SQUIBB and this individual presented what appeared to be a memorized talk. Then subject SMITH spoke again. SMITH mentioned a young man by the name of DOBBS who went to Russia and attended a Government school where he learned all about Communism. When he returned to this country he was invited to lunch by ELEANOR ROOSEVELT. Later he married a girl who was not a member of the Communist Party. Today this young man is said to be head of the "Youth for Christ Movement." SMITH said at first he was skeptical of DOBBS but now he knows that DOBBS is okay.

This Informant advised that SMITH gave a very rambling talk and stated that he thought we should have some war crime trials here in America. A pamphlet entitled, "The Plan" was distributed at the meeting and purports to be prepared by the Post War Recovery Commission. This pamphlet is furnished to the Bureau as an enclosure with this report. As only one copy is available, none is being furnished the Detroit office.

According to the Informants present, SMITH gave no indication as to when he might return to Saint Louis. Various items of literature furnished by the Informants which are not being forwarded to the Bureau of Detroit, will be retained in the Saint Louis file.

ENCLOSURE TO THE BUREAU: One copy of a leaflet entitled, "An open letter to the People of Saint Louis."
One copy of an 8 page pamphlet entitled "The Plan."

BRITAIN EXPORTS 5,000 BABIES

By Daily Mail Reporter

Five thousand dusky "problem babies," whose mothers cannot fit them into English family and community life, are to be shipped to America in a specially chartered liner.

The children from 12 months to five years old were left behind by coloured U. S. troops stationed in Britain during the war. Their mothers are British.

To save them from growing up social misfits and from possible stigma, the Negro Welfare Society of London and Liverpool are finding homes for them in the coloured communities of the United States.

The Home Secretary, Mr. Eds, has been asked to sanction the mass evacuation.

Mr. E. B. Kendall, jun., solicitor to the Negro Welfare Society explained yesterday: "There are 10,000 illegitimate coloured children in this country at present. We propose to send half of them to America.

"We have been promised a liner in nine months' time and the children will sail together under the care of an expert staff of doctors and trained nurses.

"I have had a letter from Mrs. Roosevelt telling me that she is interested in the scheme and is organising funds in America.

"We are making arrangements in this country for the other 5,000 coloured babies who will be left."

this new venture with which he was not then associated with no small degree of jealousy), has now 'worked' his way in and is very interested in the management of the concern, although he holds no official position in it. Ekarte's record in Negro Welfare in Liverpool is an unsavoury one and well known to the police. He has been interested in Negro Welfare for his own personal gain for many years.

Duplan is at present in the United States of America organizing lectures and concerts for the purpose of raising funds to enable the Negro Welfare Centre to carry out its latest scheme, I.E. to arrange to transfer to America the children born of coloured American troops in this country during the War.

Mr. Kendall, the solicitor referred to earlier in this report, is without doubt unaware of the questionable background of the Negro Welfare Centre and I am informed that he is sincerely interested in what appears to him to be a perfectly genuine proposition to send to America the children born of coloured American troops in this Country. Mr. Kendall has stated to people who have spoken to him on the subject, that several fathers of the children concerned had already written from America offering to adopt the children and that the Negro Welfare Centre has already approached the Home Office with a view to obtaining the guidance of the Home Secretary on the question of the legality of adoption of these children by people in America, having regard to the fact that at the present time the law of adoption is such that no legal adoption of children born in this Country can take place by people living outside the United Kingdom.

Ekarte is paying special interest to the proposal to transfer these children to America and he is understood to have received a letter from Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt expressing her support of the scheme.

I am informed that the whole matter of sending these children to America has been placed before the Liverpool Parliamentary Group with a view to the question being raised on the floor of the House of Commons.

I understand that the League of Coloured people in America are interested in the scheme, as also is the Pan-African Federation, whose headquarters are in Manchester. It has, however, been made clear to the Negro Welfare Centre by the Pan-African Federation and similar organizations in this County, that whilst they were interested in the scheme they would take no official action until the Home Secretary's ruling concerning adoption has been obtained.
AMERICAN LABOR PARTY

One of the fiercest battles for control is going on here in New York between the right-wing members of the A.L.P. and the Communists. So far the "Reds" are the winners. Mr. Roosevelt, Mayor La Guardia, Cong. M. Cantania, Senator Wead and others are in the midst of this fight. The Reds have set up another Committee No. 10670, known as Trade Union Committee, to elect "Win-the-War Candidates." Headquarters are in the Hotel Piccadilly. Basically speaking, this committee is set up to elect the Communists running on the A.L.P. ticket.

Following is a list of left-wing labor leaders in New York City that are busy working with the Committee for the success of this latent Red brain-storm.

Dear Sirs:

The memorandum of March 5th, 1943, relates to a conversation which I had with in which he advises her that he is looking for a job.

The memorandum of March 3rd, 1943, relates to a conversation which he had with . This memorandum contains a great deal of irrelevant information. The main item of interest is that appears to be avoiding any future contact with this informant.

to be made commonplace. I thought you might have written that editorial.

No. That's very cute, though.

Because you told me the other day you sent something to the New Yorker.

No, I didn't.

Didn't you tell me you sent

No.

Well, then, you answered something then.

That's right - but not in the New Yorker.

Well, I happened to see that editorial on gremlins.

That would be a good idea.

Saying that after all, the gremlins belong to the aviators, and it's too disgusting the way they're being used for advertising and everything now.

How can anybody do anything about them, though?

Oh, it's a fad.

That's right. Well, I'm much more upset about something else, and that is that the Short Snorters have changed.

What have they done now?

Well, Mrs. Roosevelt is now a Short Snorter. It seems that the newspapers have been giving publicity to the fact that Short Snorters are a club of people who have flown across the ocean, which isn't true at all. Somehow the .... well, started that. Roosevelt belongs to it, and also Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Well, you told me only aviators can be Short Snorters.

That's right. It's an ocean aviator club that didn't seem to have any purpose in crossing the ocean - I mean any reason. I never did find out the reason of Short Snorters. I think it was just something silly to kid people, and now they've given a reason to it. So I who have a Short Snorter pin am no longer legitimate.

Well, how many signatures do you have to have to be legitimate?

Chicago 37, Illinois

Dear Dr. Earle:

I wish to acknowledge receipt of the letter of February 26, 1944, signed by Messrs. Marshall Field, Charles F. Johnson and you, regarding the conference to be held in Chicago on March 21st and 22nd to discuss the race problem. I quite agree that this is one of the more pressing problems of the day and I would like very much to be present. Unfortunately, however, previous commitments prevent me from attending the meeting.

In this connection, I wish also to point out that the Federal Bureau of Investigation is an operating agency and it is not one of its functions to establish local matters of governmental policy. While I would like to attend the conference personally, I would be excluded officially from active participation therein for reasons which I am sure you can appreciate. I would like to suggest, however, that the pressing matter of adequate support for law enforcement be carefully considered as a problem of utmost importance should it come up, for then prompt and decisive action is necessary.

With best wishes and kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The war has forced to the front the question of race and color. This is not a new problem, but its mounting acuteness, as a factor in world civilization, demands that fresh attention be given to what is happening and is likely to happen in America.

Conviction as to the necessity for action is widespread throughout the nation. Almost every thoughtful leader is concerned. Many organized groups, nationally and locally, are attempting to find something they can do about it. The present tension and the current interest indicate the need for very careful planning in order that effective action may be taken.

The Southern Regional Council is doing constructive work in that area. "Equal Rights Policies" in the North and West may be worked out in patterns different from those that bind the South.

The situation is urgent. The whole subject needs the careful thought of the best minds in the country. Someone must take responsibility. We are therefore asking you to be one of a small number of persons to sit down with us for two days to plan for definite action, especially in the North and West, to meet the situation now and at the end of hostilities. We confidently expect that the conference will formulate a program around which large numbers of interested people can rally for a forward step in bringing our race relations into line with the democratic principle for which we are fighting the war.

The meeting will be held in Chicago on March 21 and 22, 1942, and the expenses of those who participate will be met. Details as to hours and places of meeting will be sent later. We urge that even at inconvenience and sacrifice you will find it possible to join in this consultation.

Please send your reply to Mr. Edwin R. Embree, 4901 Ellis Avenue, Chicago 15, Illinois.

Very truly yours,

In connection with the enclosed copies of report of Special Agent Los Angeles, dated January 15, 1945, in the captioned matter, reference is made to the increased activity of COMRAF subjects in the motion picture field.

The San Francisco and Los Angeles investigations of [redacted] and his wife, [redacted], indicate that they are at least involved in Communist activity but more probably also in COMINTERN APPARATUS activity. [Redacted] continues to conduct himself along Communist propaganda lines as witnessed by his promotion of a recent dinner for a somewhat mysterious figure allegedly representing a Free French Motion Picture Committee. [Redacted] has also continued his contacts with Soviet representatives as shown by his attempted deal with [redacted] to distribute Russian music in the United States.

In view of the increased contact by subjects of this case with motion picture figures, a separate case entitled SOVIET PROPAGANDA IN THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY is being opened. Reports will be furnished to those offices handling instant investigation as a special matter.

It will also be noted from this report and from the reference report of October 27, 1944, that there has been no continuation of [redacted] circle of espionage activity here since [redacted] return to Russia last summer. No Soviet official nor other subject of this case has contacted [redacted] to pursue inquiries as to high test gasoline, radar, or other matter previously discussed by [redacted] during his periodic contacts with [redacted].

The most active aspect of potential Comintern activity in Los Angeles has centered about propaganda activities in the motion picture field, in radio, and in public speeches given by various individuals.

In the radio and public speaking field [redacted] continues to be of chief interest in this area. His activity is being closely followed in a separate investigation.
La 16-15710

To TITO's people, apparently while he was in Yugoslavia; further, that he had tremendous contacts with the motion picture industry but that he let it be known that he wrote to New York apparently to a certain person. This part of the conversation was not clear but it may have been that he wrote to some person in connection with motion picture contacts. [redacted is an alternate name of [redacted].]

Further, in this conversation [redacted] remarked that apparently made a report to the Army on some question, then went to see a General and finally to Mrs. ROOSEVELT and told her "the story". Further, that he called [redacted] and wanted to arrange a meeting, that he had read "Teheran", that he was regarded as one of the [redacted] of Hollywood because he [redacted] in indistinct conversation... that [redacted] was labeled a Communist while in Hollywood.

CONFIDENTIAL

The services of confidential informant are presently being utilized in connection with the investigation of subject organization. During the month of September 1945, information regarding activities of this organization were reported by the informant. This information included the following:

3. Various information was received regarding the rally sponsored by the subject organization at Madison Square Garden on September 24, 1945. It was learned that Mrs. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT declined to appear. Also that that he wanted to advise the Bureau of a couple of matters which may come out sometime during one of his appearances before a congressional committee.

The first concerns JOSEPHINE TRUSLOW ADAMS, who is either a sister or a cousin of the historian JAMES TRUSLOW ADAMS. He advised that she was the intermediary between EARL Browder and the ROOSEVELT family, including President FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, from the time BROWDER was released from jail until he was deposed as leader of the Communist Political Association. He also advised that she collected information from the White House which was turned over to BROWDER and which undoubtedly found its way to Moscow. He added that he knew of this because he had been told of the function of JOSEPHINE TRUSLOW ADAMS on three or four occasions by different comrades, and on one occasion he was told of the important function of JOSEPHINE TRUSLOW ADAMS.

He recalls hearing an oral report of information secured by JOSEPHINE TRUSLOW ADAMS relative to President ROOSEVELT's attitude toward STALIN and what he planned and hoped to do at his next conference with STALIN. He advised that this was prior to Yalta. He advised that the report was passed to him so that he would be cognizant of these facts, He could not recall who made the report to him.

The files of the New York Field Office reflect that JOSEPHINE TRUSLOW ADAMS is a member of the Communist Party and has been active in Party affairs for many years. By letters to the Bureau dated September 28, 1944 in the case of [Redacted text] and May 13, 1944 in the case entitled [Redacted text].
"NATIONALIST PARTY OF PUERTO RICO, SEDITION, SELECTIVE SERVICE", the Bureau was advised of the activities of JOSEPHINE TRUELOW ADAMS, especially her relationship with Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT.
Dear Friend,

The fight in the Senate on the poll tax is in full stage. The poll tax Senators are not allowing the Geyer-Pepper Bill to come before the Senate for discussion. They are staging a graceful filibuster so that a vote will not be taken on this session of Congress.

In the enclosed Circular, specific actions are set for you and your organization to take. We can defeat the filibuster and pass the Geyer-Pepper Bill within the next few weeks if we work hard....if our voices are heard in the Senate actions will guarantee victory.

We have one more appeal to make. In the past, we requested financial assistance and we received enough money to keep the Committee going at this critical time. We are now appealing for money. We are confident that your response will make it possible for the Committee to carry on its work.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank the thousands of organizations and individuals who have made possible the progress on this bill.

Sincerely yours,

FOREIGN INSPIRED AGITATION AMONG THE AMERICAN NEGROES IN THE LITTLE ROCK FIELD DIVISION

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:
Very few incidents of racial friction have been noted throughout Arkansas during past month. Two negro newspapers published in Arkansas carried articles from commentators denouncing Fascism or praising Russia.

REFERENCE:
Report of Special Agent [redacted]
Little Rock, dated 6/21/45.

DETAILS:
During the past month there appear to have been very few incidents of racial friction in Arkansas. Two young negroes in Little Rock have been accused of attempted assault on a small girl in Little Rock, Arkansas.

An item in the Fort Smith Times Record for June 28, 1945, indicates that two colored transient soldiers were jailed temporarily after they had gone into the white waiting room of the Union Station in Fort Smith and had created a disturbance. The news item stated that police authorities received a call to come to the station because of a disturbance and that several colored soldiers were in the white waiting room and were rather boisterous and rowdy. Police officers told a white Lieutenant to ask the men to move from the white waiting room and two members of the colored group were said to have become profane. They had been drunk and they were taken to jail but then were taken back to the station and delivered to the members of the Military Police.

In the same issue of the "Arkansas World" is a news item to the effect that it was rumored that a negro might be appointed as an Assistant Secretary of the Department of Labor but that there was no real ground upon which to support the report that RANDOLPH might get this post. It was asserted that RANDOLPH was a member of the Socialist Party; that he had been an arch critic of the New Deal, and that through a spokesman had recently threatened trouble for the present administration.

In the issue of June 22, 1945, of the "State Press" is a news item to the effect that the Naval Ordnance Plant at Camden, Arkansas, has completed excellent living facilities for the colored employees at that plant; that the same was supervised entirely by negroes and that negroes had excellent jobs in the plant. The news item stated it was doubtful that the FEPC had had anything to do with bringing about this excellent result, but that it was the result of cooperative efforts by responsible colored and white laborers in Arkansas.

In the same issue of the "State Press", is a reprint of an editorial from the Pittsburgh Courier, commending the stand of President HARRY S. TRUMAN relative to the FEPC. In this editorial was the following sentence: "Time and again President Roosevelt was asked to speak out in favor of this or that measure and to use his influence with Congress to have certain remedial legislature such as an Anti-Lynching bill passed, but to no avail". The editorial asserted that whether or not a permanent FEPC was secured it was evident that President TRUMAN would not be remiss in advocating its adoption.

In the issue of June 29, 1945, WALTER WHITE, Secretary of the NAACP, asserted that any Congressman who had failed to sign a petition to discharge the committee in the house having the FEPC Bill before it, should be defeated.

In the same paper was a statement to the effect that the Workers Defense League had produced a pamphlet called "Jobs Without Creed or Color" and that the same was available for any person.

In the issue of July 6, 1945, of the "State Press" was a news item to the effect that Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT had accepted membership on the National Board of Directors of the NAACP and that WALTER WHITE, Secretary of that organization, had stated that it was an honor to have such a great American on its Board of Directors and that the organization desired her council as a member of the Board and that she should have a great effect in the fight for total equality of the negro. It is stated, however, that Mrs. ROOSEVELT stated that all citizens should have certain rights, these being equal opportunity for employment according to ability and at equal pay; equal opportunity for education; justice before the law; and participation in Government through the ballot.

In the same issue of the "State Press", is a news item quoting Governor ELLIS O. KENNALL of Georgia, as stating that economic equality for the negroes was a right which should not be denied, and that unless the negroes had a good home, a good education and economic security, the rest of the people of Georgia would not have the same.

In the issue of June 24, 1945, is a news item to the effect that the U.S.O. CLUB for Negroes in Little Rock had been reopened. This is due to the larger number of negro soldiers being brought to Camp Robinson, Arkansas, and being discharged.

In the same issue on page two, is a news item to the effect that Secretary of Commerce HENRY WALLACE had been asked to appoint negroes to important jobs in the Department of Commerce, these being in the Small Business Division, in the regional and district offices; and on the advisory committee.

In the issue of July 15, 1945, of the "Arkansas World" is an item to the effect that the United Federal Workers Union, a CIO organization, would make loans to FEPC workers to tide them over checkless pay days if the appropriation bill for the FEPC were not passed to meet payrolls.

In the same newspaper, WALTER WHITE, Secretary of the NAACP, is quoted as saying that the race problem was not a sectional problem in the United States, and was not merely a national problem in the United States, but that it was a world problem and that this conclusion had been reached by WHITE during his travels throughout the world to survey conditions.

INTERNAL SECURITY - KLAN

Nrs. Eleanor Roosevelt is scheduled to make a speech at Monteagle, Tennessee, 6/16/58. A confidential informant of the Knoxville Office, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that at a meeting of U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, or the scheduled talk by Mrs. Roosevelt was discussed. It was mentioned that Klansmen plan to go to Monteagle and stop the talk "even if they had to blow the place up."

Same informant advised it was also mentioned that had been contacted regarding this matter and advised the Klan he will not interfere with them if they come in and break up the meeting.

OBSERVATIONS:

Knoxville advised in view of the above information concerning Memphis should inform state authorities in Nashville concerning contemplated Klan action. Even though allegedly knows about this action it is believed the Knoxville Office should inform him, then if he refuses to take action to stop any Klan action there may be a possible civil rights violation.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. There is attached for your approval a letter to Knoxville and Memphis instructing Knoxville to disseminate this information concerning contemplated Klan action to and intelligence agencies of the Armed Forces and instructing Memphis to advise appropriate state authorities at Nashville. Both offices being instructed to alert informants to this matter and keep Bureau advised.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

District 7 leaders want more members of the Communist Political Association from the Negroes in Detroit. Negroes versus whites at Local 193 of the UAW-CIO has been the topic of considerable discussion to the dissatisfaction of several leaders of the Michigan Communist Political Association. Attempts are being made to ease the situation for the benefit of the Communist Political Association. With regard to Local 193, the Negro Local of the UAW-CIO, Communist political association leaders are looking toward the January, 1945, elections. Measures are being taken to ensure that Negroes will be included on the respective slate at the local. Conferences have been called among various Negro leaders for that specific purpose. Midtown Communist Club has been broken up into three separate clubs and several Negroes chosen as leaders. At meeting attended by B. J. HUDSON, Vice-President of the national Communist Political Association, for discussion on the present Montgomery Ward strike situation, District 7 unionists were present. Among them were two Negroes. Civil Rights Federation issued press release criticizing refusal of use of jail facilities by Sheriff R. S. Robbins, residents of Negroes from Dearborn, Michigan, city officials for erection of NAACP project for Negroes. FED is conducting drive to recruit 1000 Negroes from Detroit area into its ranks.

"Only a direct order from the late Lewis B. Hershey, national director of the Selective Service System, stopped the induction."

"Then, in a persistent pursuit of its persecution, the FBI slumped a brand new charge on Brown of 'wilfully, deliberately and feloniously failing to keep his draft board informed of his address.' He was placed under a $1000 bond and hearing was set for November 25.

"But before the hearing could be held, however, all charges were dropped—but not before Brown had been referred to as 'one of those F.B.I. boys' and as 'one of Eleanor's boys.' The latter reference, of course, was to the Roosevelt.

"Hon. Ugo Carusi, executive assistant to Attorney General Mr. Riddle, handled the Washington end of the case after the FBI made the mistake of letting FBI officials in Washington bull pen insisting the man be cleared up one way or the other instead of new charges being levied as soon as another was cleared up.

"Carusi said the Department of Justice was ready to accept Brown's explanation and that of those who know him to the effect that his draft misdeeds were an oversight. He admitted having heard of the smear references to the 'F.B.I. boys' and 'Eleanor's boys,' but said he had not heard any of his FBI men had said it. He didn't indicate whether he thought it important to find out whether an FBI man or men said it.

SUBJECT: RACISM

INTERNAL SECURITY

During the past two weeks several instances of racial unrest in this area have come to the attention of the New York Field Division. The instances in question are being set forth below:

On March 10, 1945, the "New York Age," negro newspaper, carried an article captioned, "Negro Soldiers Stationed in Staten Island Under Stricter Discipline After Stabbing." The article in question is given below:

"Army officials curtailed many of the liberties of soldiers stationed on Staten Island, Saturday, as a result of a series of violent incidents involving soldiers and civilians. The most recent was the stabbing of a civilian and a policeman.

"A high official at the Port of Embarkation said that 'this headquarters has been informed of several instances of disorders in Staten Island involving Army personnel, and active measures are being taken to prevent a recurrence of such disorders.'

"It was understood that this would include a drastic cut of pass privileges and assignment of more mobile and dismounted military police to maintain a stricter guard over military personnel in key spots.

"The Army action followed the arraignment in Staten Island Magistrate's Court of two soldiers accused of stabbing a Negro civilian and disarming and beating a white policeman in an early morning row in Stapleton. The soldiers, identified as CURTIS WILLIAMS, 25, and HEYWOOD ARINGTON, 18, both assigned to the Fox Hills Cantonment, were held in $10,000 bail on assault and Sullivan Law violation charges pending hearing at a date to be set by Magistrate Alfred M. Lindau.

"According to police, the two soldiers assaulted SHERMAN IVORY, 20, of 2931 Richmond Terrace, West Brighton, in Stapleton, without provocation and stabbed him when he resisted. Motorcycle Patrolman STEPHEN CROWE, who attempted to aid the civilian, was disarmed and beaten. Both injured persons were given emergency treatment at Staten Island Hospital and then allowed to go home."

On March 10, 1945, the Pittsburgh Courier," New York Seaboard issue, contained an article entitled "GENERAL SHARPS SYES SPREADING RACE TENSIONS." The article datelined New York and obtained through the services of the ASSOCIATED NEGRO PRESS is as follows:
"America was warned that racial tensions are spreading throughout the nation and that there exists an anti-Negro class covenant between poor and rich whites in Dixie.

"Speaking at a luncheon here attended by local sponsors of a Southern conference for Human Welfare dinner to be given in honor of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Miss LILLIAN SMITH, author of "Strange Fruit," warned that the North is now seething with the same tensions which were once considered purely Southern property.

"Miss SMITH, who revealed she had a recent interview with the mayor of Detroit, described the class covenant between poor and rich whites. 'The poor were not to infringe upon the rights of the rich,' she said, 'but they were to be allowed to maintain a certain amount of prestige by stepping on the Negro.'"

In addition to the above information, several other instances of juvenile gang fighting have broken out in the Harlem, Bronx, and Bedford Stuyvesant Areas of this city, where the majority of the negro population reside. Most of the juvenile gang fighting has been between rival negro gangs. However, in the Bronx Spanish and Negro juvenile gangs have clashed. During the last week a Spanish-Negro juvenile gang fight resulted in the death of one of the negro juveniles, as a result of a gun shot wound received during the fight.

Agents of this office have been advised by police officials of this city that additional police personnel will be assigned to Harlem and other sections of the city where large crowds congregate, on the day Germany surrenders in order to prevent any serious disturbances.

The above information is being forwarded to the Bureau for information purposes only.

An article appearing in the Florida Times-Union, daily newspaper, Jacksonville, Florida, dated September 26, 1954, at Gainesville, Florida, reflect that the Gainesville Police Department reported a six by eight foot cross was burned on the front lawn of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity House about 4:30 A.M. on September 26, 1954. According to the above newspaper article, the cross was wrapped in newspapers and fraternity members said they had no idea as to who may have burned the cross or for what reason.

According to T-2, the general remarks made by the speaker at the gathering were substantially as follows:

"We are going to stop de-segregation in public schools. The Supreme Court has taken over powers of the Congress and are legislating rather than acting as a judicial body. The American Confederate Army is going to unite, block by block, business by business, in order to fight de-segregation by all legal means. Closing the public schools is not the answer to the problem. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is a Communist outfit and the only white person in the NAACP is ELEANOR ROOSEVELT. The politicians are afraid of the NAACP. If a law enforcement officer is accused of violating a negro's Civil Rights, the officer is discharged from the job and has to defend himself alone in Federal Court. The state of Florida should pass a law so that such law enforcement Officers would not be discharged from their jobs and the state should finance their defense and aid in their defense of Civil Rights cases in Federal Courts."

T-2 further advised that during the above remarks a young unidentified man walked around among the automobiles devoted to discussion as to how the Klavern could increase its membership and attendance.

advised that this meeting was under the leadership of E. R. BATTLE and again methods of increasing membership and attendance were discussed. It was announced that the Hixson Klavern would meet with Dayton Klavern on April 24, 1959, and that on May 1, 1959, members of the Dayton Klavern would visit members of the Hixson Klavern.

advised that this was a joint meeting of Klavern #5, Dayton, Tennessee, and Klavern # 309, Hixson, held at Dayton, Tennessee. The meeting was under the leadership of the Exalted Cyclops of Dayton, ARCHIE POOLE. Informant stated the principal subject discussed was concerning the decrease in membership of Dayton Klavern and it was mentioned 35-40 members had been dropped for non-payment of dues. Informant stated after the regular meeting members broke up into small groups and engaged in informal discussions. Informant reported that he heard one group mention that MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT was scheduled to make a speech at the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee, but he was not in this group and did not know who made the statement concerning the speech and did not hear any statements regarding any plans of the Klan in connection with this event.

advised that this was a closed meeting at Hixson, Tennessee, under the leadership of E. R. BATTLE. He stated only a small number were present and again a discussion was held concerning attendance.

4. Membership

advised that at recent meetings of this Hixson Klavern, the attendance was small and discussions were held concerning obtaining new members and better attendance.
advised that GEORGE COMPTON acted as Exalted Cyclops for this meeting. The lack of interest on part of members was discussed as well as the fact that some of the officers did not know their duty. Informant advised one member made a talk on history of the klan.

stated that G. S. PATHE was elected to the office of Exalted Cyclops. At this meeting it was announced that visitors from other klaverns would be invited to a regular meeting of this Klavern in the future. Discussions also took place concerning raising money for the new building.

advised that six visitors were present at this meeting including ARCHIE POOLE of Dayton Klavern and CARL CHEATHAM of the Copperhill Klavern. T-3 stated that POOLE made a lengthy talk and said that the President of the United States and the Governor of Tennessee were the greatest enemies of the white race with the exception of Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT. POOLE said that former President ROOSEVELT would be alive today if he had not been killed by two Jews who were painting his picture. T-3 stated that GEORGE COMPTON, Grand Dragon for the State of Tennessee announced that LEO. ROOSEVELT was to make a speech in the near future at Monticello, Tennessee. COMPTON said it would not be a good idea for any members of the U. S. Klan to attend this meeting, as he was afraid there was going to be trouble. ARCHIE POOLE said he was sure some of the outlaw klan groups were going to cause trouble at this meeting and said the only way he would go to the meeting would be with an FBI Agent.

according to the Informant said that the Maryville, Tennessee Police Department was putting on more men in order to integrate the local schools this fall. POOLE then said it would be a good idea to put up some ammunition.
stated that the above meeting was devoted to a discussion of attempting to collect dues from members who were delinquent in payment. Informant stated that dues were to be paid by all members by April 10, 1953 and that names of inactive members were given to several members to contact them in an effort to collect their dues.

advised that at the above meeting a discussion was held concerning integration in the Chattanooga Schools. A discussion was also held concerning a plan to organize the teenage boys in Dayton to oppose integration, however, no definite plans were made in this regard.

advised that this meeting was attended by five members from the Hixson Klavern and most of the discussion at the meeting was concerning integration in the Chattanooga schools and the information that MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT was planning to speak at Monteagle, Tennessee in the future. In connection with the talk to be given by MRS. ROOSEVELT, informant stated that some members indicated they were going to stop the talk "even if they had to blow the place up". Informant advised that some of the members from Hixson mentioned that the Sheriff from Morriengle has said that he would not interfere with the klan if they broke up the meeting where MRS. ROOSEVELT was speaking.

4. Membership

advised that there were 162 names on the roll of the Dayton Klavern but that many of the individuals were delinquent in payment of their dues.

5. Miscellaneous

advised that he was at a closed meeting on which was a joint meeting of Klavern and Klavern
The meeting was under the leadership of ARTHUR POOLE, Exalted Cyclops of Dayton Klavern. POOLE discussed a decreasing membership of Dayton Klavern due to the nonpayment of dues. Informant advised that after the regular meeting informal discussions were held by all members present. He stated on occasions several discussions on various topics were in progress at the same time. He recalls someone mentioned that MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT was scheduled to speak at the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee this Summer. He advised that someone mentioned that they should form a motorcade and go to Monteagle on the night of the speech and possibly burn a cross in protest to her appearance. He stated that the discussion was general and no definite plans were made.

S. Klan Auxiliary

Advised that the Dayton Klavern had no Klan auxiliary.
II. DEMONSTRATIONS

advised that on the evening of a group of six members of the Maryville - Alcoa Klavern #2 planned to burn a cross at the residence of an individual named TOWNSEND residing on Morganton Road near Maryville, Tennessee. Informant stated that GEORGE COMPTON, Grand Dragon for the State was to participate in this cross burning. Informant advised there was no racial issue involved and the cross was being burned because of loud and drunken parties being given in the TOWNSEND residence.

advised that the decision to burn the cross on March 8, had been made following the regular meeting of Klavern #2 on March 7, and that members planned to participate in this act.
Informant stated that on March 7, made the statement that the cross had been burned.

On March 12, 1953, EDWARD GUINN, Blount County
Sheriff, Maryville, Tennessee, advised that Blount County Deputies investigated a cross burning at the residence of GLEN TOWNSEND, Morganton Road, on night of March 8, 1953.
Sheriff GUINN stated that his deputies learned nothing pertinent concerning this cross burning except that residents reported hearing several noises which sounded like shots about the same time the cross was burned.

advised that a closed meeting of Klavern was held on
In attendance were members of the Dayton Klavern as well as members of the Hixson Klavern. The talk scheduled by Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT at the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee, was discussed and according to informant it was mentioned that klansmen from several klaverns planned to go to Monteagle on the date of the talk and stop it "even if they had to blow the place up". The informant advised that it was also mentioned that the sheriff at Monteagle, Tennessee, had been contacted and advised that he would not interfere with the klan if they came and broke up the meeting.
advised that at a regular closed meeting of Dayton Klavern on May 1, 1956, Exalted Cyclops, ARCHIE POOLE stated the klan was not going to attend Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT's talk at the Highlander Folk School and that he, POOLE, would not be there. POOLE reportedly told the group that he was not telling them to go or not to go but that they would be on their own if they did go.

advised that he was at a closed meeting on [blacked out] at Dayton, which was a joint meeting of Klavern #5, Dayton and Klavern #302, Hixson. He stated the meeting was under the leadership of ARCHIE POOLE, Exalted Cyclops of Dayton Klavern. POOLE discussed a decreasing membership of Dayton Klavern due to the nonpayment of dues. Informant advised that after the regular meeting informal discussions were held by all members present. He stated on occasions several discussions on various topics were in progress at the same time. He recalled someone mentioned that MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT was scheduled to speak at the Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee this summer. He advised that someone mentioned that they should form a motorcade and go to Monteagle on the night of the speech and possibly burn a cross in protest to her appearance. He stated that the discussion was general and no definite plans were made.

advised a regular closed meeting of Great Officers of the Third Province and delegates from Klaverns of the Third Province was held at Chattanooga, Tennessee on [blacked out] in the regular meeting hall of Klavern #1. Informant stated the meeting was under the leadership of the Great Titan of the Third Province, HOYD D. BRYSON of Hixson and there were approximately 20 individuals at the meeting which included the Grand Dragon of the State of Tennessee, GEORGE COMPTON of Maryville, Tennessee. T-2 stated after the election of officers BRYSON brought up the subject of MRS. ROOSEVELT's speech on June 16, 1956, at Highlander Folk School, Monteagle, Tennessee. Informant stated this was discussed and at first a large number of those present wanted to proceed to Monteagle on the day of the speech. They wished to wear robes and form a motorcade and drive in the vicinity of the Highlander Folk School in protest. Other members wanted to form the motorcade but without wearing robes. The leaders present did not want to have any type of other democratic countries, pretending to be what is called a democratic country; then it reversed its previous position and instead of denouncing Roosevelt they became his most active supporters and became interested in all kinds of reforms which they had previously denounced as bourgeoisie reformation, and they didn't follow their former line with reference to Democracy. And in this respect, this conference, the southern conference, was the kind of organization that they needed and in which with respect to poll taxes and race relations and things of this kind, their interest was paramount; and at the same time they were doing this they were trying to improve friendly relations between the Soviet Union and the democratic countries in order that the Soviet Union could have allies against Germany in the event of war. And they, at the same time, were trying to infiltrate into high positions in our government and to get a better organization and to obtain important government jobs, and things of this sort, things of this kind. And by taking advantage of these things, such as social reforms, they were able to increase their effectiveness in that direction.

Q. Was a magazine or newspaper published in order to launch this organization?
A. Yes, the New South.
Q. Who edited the New South?
A. I did.
Q. For how long a period?
A. From April 1938 until it discontinued publication, after the outbreak of the war in Europe in September 1938.

Q. A great many prominent people in governmental circles were very interested in the southern conference, were they not?
A. Yes, many prominent officials, such as the Supreme Court Justice and, while he wasn't an official of the government, and the wife of the President of the United States— were induced to speak there. Of course, I should make it clear that Mrs. Roosevelt obviously didn't know that this was a Communist organized affair when she accepted, and a letter was sent by the President of the United States to this conference, and it was obtained through the Communist Party, of course, without Mr. Roosevelt's knowledge. This was Communist-inspired and he certainly didn't know the man he was talking to when sitting in his car, about the conference, and about this letter; this was one of the highest officials in the Communist Party in the United States.

Q. You knew this man?
A. Yes, I knew this man intimately for many years.
Q. And you worked with this man intimately for many years?
A. Yes, and the man frequently was a guest at both the White House and Hyde Park.

Q. Was that an example, Mr. Crouch, of the technique used by the Communist Party to dupe sincere people with humanitarian motives, who were taken advantage of by the Communist Party for its own ends?
A. Yes, a very typical example, and one of the most classic examples that I know of, and there have been scores of such organizations such as Credit and Criminal checks were conducted by SE at the time subject's husband was being investigated in this Office as an applicant in an Atomic Energy Act investigation. This investigation was discontinued September 20, 1950.

The following information was obtained from the files of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin Library by SE on September 12, 1950.

The Evening Bulletin newspaper, Philadelphia, Pa., on August 25, 1949, reported that Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT had come to the defense of MOLLY YARD by branding the Communist front charges against the ADA and MOLLY YARD, a long-time friend of hers, as "reprehensible and irresponsible." Mrs. ROOSEVELT stated that she was one of the founders of ADA and that it has been effectively fighting Communism. She said she could attest to MOLLY YARD's devotion to democratic ideals and that she classified the attack as a grave injustice to a fine American. She stated that MOLLY YARD was active in the American Student Union at the time she (Mrs. ROOSEVELT) was interested in Youth Groups. Mrs. ROOSEVELT regarded MOLLY YARD as a sincere and courageous liberal. "She always opposed Communism and Totalitarianism. As a sincere believer in, and fighter for democracy, she was never content to sit on the sidelines, but met and fought the Communists in liberal organizations where they were attempting to infiltrate and take over," MOLLY YARD was forced out of the American Student Union when the Communists eventually gained control.

NEGRO QUESTION
File No. 100-3-78

I-6, of known reliability, advised that JUAN JORDAN, who, according to I-1, was an organizational secretary of the Communist Party in 1947, continues to be active in advocating the non-segregation of Negroes and whites in the Atlanta area.

The "Atlanta Daily World", September 11, 1948, had a letter from JUAN JORDAN to the editor, in which he denied the violations at Peachville, New York at the ROY ROEBUCK concert.

I-7, of known reliability, advised that the Southern Regional Council sponsored the meeting in which JUAN JORDAN, ROEBUCK, wife of deceased FRANKLIN ROEBUCK, was to be the principal speaker, and that through diabolical means, and obtained tickets to instant meeting, although they were not members of, or connected with, instant organization. Informant advised that arrangements were made through for the attendance through the use of these tickets, of some Negro women and men. Informant advised that plans were made that if this meeting were to be a segregated meeting, or a meeting which would exclude Negroes, should arise, and ask why the meeting was segregated, or the Negroes excluded, in an effort to create a disturbance. Informant advised, however, that this plan fall through as the meeting was not segregated and did not exclude Negroes.

I-8 advised that during August mimeographed pamphlets were sent out by the Communist Party of Georgia through the mail to various people through the State of Georgia, proclaiming a "FREE NATION UNION This Week!" These pamphlets stressed the facts that MEXICON was the national organizational secretary of the Communist Party, one of the three top posts in the Communist Party, and that no other Negro, regardless of their qualifications, holds such a position in the political parties. Informant advised that people receiving this mimeographed sheet wrote to Judge IDELL and President TRUMAN to free MEXICON, who was jailed for contempt by Judge IDELL.

A memorandum from Mr. Nichols to Mr. Tolson 1/18/56 reflects that Senator Eastland inquired whether the Bureau would object to the Committee putting into the record, in connection with the Morgenthau Papers, information developed by the FBI to show that a spy visited the United States and ended up by calling on Supreme Court Justice Frankfurter, and that the Senator stated his recollection of the incident was that there was quite a hassle which developed and resulted in Justice Frankfurter and Mrs. Roosevelt being critical of the Director. On 1/19/56 Senator Eastland identified the "spy" as Adam Von Trott and mentioned that a communication was sent to Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau on 12/16/39 concerning Von Trott; that Allen Dulles had identified Von Trott as a member of the Communist Party and that Von Trott was ostensibly in the United States to attend a conference of the Institute of Pacific Relations (IPR) in November, 1939.

The Director commented, "I will want to know more re this."

File 65-5938 reflects that we instituted an investigation of Adam Von Trott on 10/10/39 after Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau contacted former Assistant to the Director E.A. Tamm and advised him that Von Trott called on Justice Felix Frankfurter in Washington, D. C.; that Justice Frankfurter had reported the results of his conversation with Von Trott to Secretary Morgenthau and the Secretary and that it appeared that Von Trott, while ostensibly in the United States to attend a meeting of the Institute of Pacific Relations, was actually sent to the United States to contact five persons in the interests of Dr. Schott (probably Hjalmar Schacht) who desired to overthrow the Hitler Government. The details of Von Trott's interview with Justice Frankfurter were not made available to us but it was indicated that the five persons to be contacted by Von Trott did not of his plan to contact them.
Memorandum for Mr. Boardman

Our investigation disclosed that Von Trott, whose full name is Adam Von Trott zu Solz, arrived in the United States on 10/2/39; that he travelled on a visa issued in Berlin, Germany, in August, 1939, for the purpose of making the trip and indicated he intended to visit his uncle, William Schieffelin, 620 Park Avenue, New York. There is some indication that Von Trott's expenses to the United States were paid by the IPR. Von Trott left the United States in January, 1940, to return to Germany via the Far East and Moscow and was ultimately executed in Germany for complicity in a plot of July 20, 1944, to assassinate Hitler. While in the United States, Von Trott contacted a number of individuals, including Dr. Heinrich Bruening, then a professor at Harvard University and former chancellor of the German Government; Edward C. Carter, American Council of the IPR; Hamilton Fish Armstrong, editor on foreign affairs in New York; Frederick Vanderbilt Field, Secretary of the IPR; Otto Jeidels, German financier and partner in the firm of Lasard Preres and Company; and Philip C. Jessup of the IPR. Von Trott was also in contact with a number of other individuals who obviously held anti-Nazi views.

On 12/16/39 we transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury a 35-page memorandum covering the activities of Von Trott, the file copy of which is enclosed. A copy of this memorandum was also made available to the Honorable Adolph A. Berle, Assistant Secretary of State; Brigadier General Edwin M. Watson, Secretary to the President, as well as to G-2 and ONI.

Observations:

1. The results of the investigation of Von Trott's activities as set forth in the 35-page memorandum makes it obvious that the Bureau utilized microphone surveillances, technical surveillances and confidential sources giving us access to Von Trott's personal mail. This is evidenced by the fact that certain items of correspondence are quoted verbatim in the memorandum and that certain telephone conversations of Von Trott are set forth verbatim. We also utilized information obtained through trash covers in connection with this investigation.

2. The conversations and correspondence of Von Trott indicate that he was opposed to the Hitler Government and that he was pressing the views of a socialistic group in Germany. In one of his conversations he made reference to the fact that "his group was not in a position to abrogate the Hitler-Stalin agreement but he would Indicate that the opinion generally existed that the revolutionary elements of Germany and Russia must cooperate in order to introduce a socialistic compact in favor of Germany." (See Page 9.) He emphasized that the cooperation should be sought to defeat Hitler and that this could be accomplished by combined socialistic elements in Russia and Germany and that for the success of this program "the progressive groups in the United States must participate and bring pressure to bear upon France and Great Britain."

3. The publication of the memorandum could have political implications in that a letter received by Von Trotz (presumably from Dr. Brueining) in 1939 inquired as to whether Von Trotz, while in Washington, was able to sound out people in close contact with "Mr. R" (See Page 17 of enclosure) It is noted that Mr. Morgenthau indicated that the President suspected that Von Trotz's mission to the United States had as its purpose the enlistment of support for Dr. Schacht (probably Schacht) to overthrow the Hitler Government.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. While it does not appear that the Bureau should interpose any objection to a reference by the Committee to the fact that Von Trotz visited the United States, it is felt that the Bureau should object to the publication of items in the memorandum to the Secretary of the Treasury which will disclose the use of technical and microphone surveillances as well as the use of confidential sources giving us access to Von Trotz's mail.

2. The Bufile on Von Trotz fails to reflect any information indicating that a "hassle" developed and resulted in criticism of the Director by Justice Frankfurter and Mrs. Roosevelt. In view of this it is recommended that Mr. Nichols recontact Senator Eastland in an effort to determine whether such information appears in the Morgenthau papers and, if so, obtain that information.

I think we should act. Before we give any approval to use this material, we should clear with R.C. (1-24-34)

DATE: January 19, 1956

With further reference to my memorandum dated January 18, 1956, reporting a conversation with Senator James Eastland (D., Miss.) wherein he stated there was among the Morgenthau papers a Bureau report of a spy who met with Justice Frankfurter, Jay Sourwine subsequently informed me the subject was Adam Von Trott and that the communication was sent to the Secretary of the Treasury under date of December 16, 1939. Sourwine further stated that Von Trott was identified in a book written by Allen Dulles as a member of the Communist Party and that this, of course, made the material very significant. I then wrote a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury dated December 16, 1939, transmitting a memorandum on Von Trott, who was a German in this country ostensibly to attend the Institute of Pacific Relations conference at Virginia Beach, Virginia, in November, 1939.

It is suggested that the Domestic Intelligence Division review this memorandum and prepare a short summary on Von Trott so that a determination can be made whether we should interpose an objection to using the bureau memorandum found in the Morgenthau papers. I do not think we should interpose an objection unless there is some very significant reason.

The "Daily Worker" issue of May 17, 1956, Page 2, Column 1, carried an article captioned: "Ask Kentucky Dismissal of Sedition Indictments."

This article pointed out that the defense attorneys for six defendants, charged with sedition under an old Kentucky statute, had filed a motion for dismissal of the indictment and cited the recent United States Supreme Court ruling invalidating state sedition statutes as the basis for their motion.

Smith Act Arrests

The "Daily Worker" issue of May 31, 1956, Page 5, Column 1, contains an editorial entitled: "The Mass Arrests."

This editorial brands as "a deliberate lie" the statement of the Justice Department that the arrest of seven persons on a Boston Smith Act indictment is a "move designed to break the back of an active Communist underground in New England." It states: "All the persons arrested were living and working at known addresses."

The editorial concludes by stating: "The appeal of a group of citizens, headed by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt for a halt to all Smith Act prosecutions and the recent demand of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers convention to scrap all these thought-control laws, become especially urgent in the light of the Boston events."

Re: Visit to Jamaica By Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt

March 8, 1944

Dear Sir:

For the information of the Bureau, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt arrived at Fort Simonds, Jamaica at 4:15 P.M., on March 6, 1944 for a tour of inspection of American troop facilities in Jamaica.

Her program while in Jamaica is as follows:

March 6 - Arrived at 4:15 P.M. via army bomber landing at Verrum Field, adjacent to Fort Simonds; met by His Excellency Sir John Huggins, Governor of Jamaica, Lady Huggins, Mr. John R. Lord, American Consul, Mrs. John H. Lord, Mr. George Kelly, Vice Consul, Mrs. Kelly, and Colonel John W. Dallin, Commanding Officer of the Jamaica Base Command. Mrs. Roosevelt had tea, visited the Base Hospital, and had mess with the troops.

March 7 - She made a thorough inspection of the base with particular emphasis on the recreational and social facilities available to the troops. She had lunch at the base; drove to Kingston where she inspected the U.S.O. She then proceeded to King's House for tea. From 6 to 8 P.M., an official reception was given at King's House at which prominent officials and citizens of Jamaica were present. There was a small dinner party at King's House, and Mrs. Roosevelt remained there for the night.

March 8 - At 7:30 A.M., Mrs. Roosevelt left King's House for Fort Simonds where she departed for South America.

On February 22, 1944, Mr. John H. Lord, The American Consul, received a telegram from Washington advising of the proposed visit of Mrs. Roosevelt. No specifications for her arrival, but the cablegram informed that telegrams had been sent to the commanding officers of the military and naval bases in Jamaica containing instructions for them, local schedules, and to make the necessary arrangements for the security of Mrs. Roosevelt.

about their reaction to a reception by the local guild in their honor. said he didn't. said they could have local guild members and also some people who are members and could have give a talk on the guild. They discussed a date for the reception and tentatively agreed on Saturday, November 1st. asked if has been trying to figure out some kind of an affair to raise money. said he has that on the agenda for the executive board meeting Wednesday night at 7:30 or 8:00 PM. said they are stymied on the money-making proposition; that their usual source was a dinner, but he didn't see how they could have any kind of a dinner with any kind of speakers to draw a crowd. They discussed speakers, and said they worked on for a while and could have had a big dinner with ELEANOR ROOSEVELT, but didn't let them have it. He continued that when they can get speakers that will draw a crowd, it raises the question of whether or not they want them. suggested somebody like or for a speaker in connection with the inflation question. suggested to speak on monopoly. They discussed the radio program last Sunday and agreed it was good. said, "You notice what his law firm does, though." said, "You mean they represent the other side?" said, "On wages and hours, and it's awfully bad to represent them and come out and call for amendments to throw the act out the window." said it is hardly the kind of position they like to see a guild member adopt.
The Communist Party circles were all talking today of the Russian War Relief Concert that was held in Washington and was attended by Mrs. Roosevelt and all the high ranking government officials from members of the Supreme Court down.

They speak with great pride when they tell of the audience standing at attention while the Internationale was being played and the applause that followed. The very fact that this concert was held in Constitution Hall Home of the Daughter's of the American Revolution who have always been against being friendly with the Soviet Union was satisfaction enough.

At the lumenachette at 12th St. and University Place where comrades from the national office congregate this story seemed to be the topic of the day. Among those sitting at my table discussing this topic were Mrs. Roosevelt was the last speaker introduced and received a standing ovation. Her speech was brief as she told the audience that this was a busy day for her as it was her moving day and she was moving into new quarters. COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES.

Attached is a clipping from the New York Times of January 26, 1940 giving a biography of Rudolf Kagey and a picture of the latter.

In the meantime I found that Kagey is a protege of Mrs. Sidney Borg - who of course does not know about his Communist affiliations - and obtained the World's Fair appointment through her.

Mrs. Borg introduced Kagey to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and since March of this year he has had several conferences with Mrs. Roosevelt in New York City.

GERMAN TRENDS

Official announcement by American Military Government authorities in Frankfurt of the resumption of mail service between Germany and the outside world as of April 1st, was widely acclaimed in local German circles in this area. It is pointed out in these circles that the average German in the United States has had no news from his relatives and friends in Germany since Pearl Harbor. The only exception are those relatively few to whom word from their close relatives has been relayed in recent months by some friendly GI or American officer who happened to run into some Gernans with relatives in America anxious to hear from them. Expressing the views of the average German-American, the "New York Staatszeitung" says editorially that the impending restoration of mail service with Germany is good news indeed. However, the "Staatszeitung" points out, this can be only a first step on the road to a more sensible approach to the German problem as a whole, which sooner or later must take the place of the prevailing distorted view of material and psychological conditions in present day Germany. The Socialist "Neue Volkszeitung" expresses a similar view on the subject, stating editorially:

"At the same time it is our opinion that this single measure is only the first step, and a short one at that, on the long and difficult road leading from war-time psychology to true humanitarianism. We still uphold the old social-democratic principles of liberty, brotherly love, and equality of all—including those who under Hitler have sinned against civilized humanity, but who today are prostrate and miserable beyond words. We consider it our natural duty to keep fighting for the application of these principles to those fields where, unfortunately, they have not yet been generally accepted."

Just what the "Neue Volkszeitung" means by this last remark is made clear in a first page editorial in the same issue of the paper in which the "Volkszeitung's" editor, Gerhart B. Seger, severely criticizes Eleanor Roosevelt for having stated that the food situation in Germany was not as bad as some quarters would have us believe. Says Seger:

"While in London, where she was a member of the American delegation attending the UNO Conference, Mrs. Roosevelt was taken to Frankfurt in an army plane. In Frankfurt she rode from the airport through the destroyed section of the city to the Park..."
FBI, NYC REPORTED:

"Hotel, where she received the press. Her observations were thus limited to the ridiculously few sights she was able to glimpse at from the airplane, at a considerable distance, and during her short ride over a few streets. According to a dispatch, carried by all papers, she has not spoken to a single civilian in Germany. Nevertheless, she stated that the fields appeared well tilled and that only well fed people were able to take care of the soil in such a manner. With no word did she mention (even if those conclusions could be accepted) that Germany has a considerable urban population as well, numbering millions of people. Farmers have always and in all countries been self-sustaining and much better off, in times of war, than city folk. She could have made the same observations in France.

... A woman in her position ... should show a keener sense of responsibility, all the more so since her 'statements of fact' contrast sharply with her warm-heartedness, which again and again has prompted her to champion the cause of the unfortunate in our own country. She has a perfect right to advocate the policies identified with the name of Henry Morgenthau, a life-long friend of the Roosevelt family ... but there is quite a difference between voicing an opinion and stating facts; it is here that Mrs. Roosevelt has committed a serious mistake. ... It isn't our job to remind Mrs. Roosevelt that she has quite a reputation to lose — if she chooses to jeopardize it by making statements such as those, that is her affair. But for anybody who, as has this writer, has travelled for weeks in Germany and ... who has visited the homes of the people and talked to them, it becomes a moral obligation to raise his voice in protest against this sort of shallowness."

By way of illustration of its contention that the German people lack food to a degree where substantial portions of the population face starvation, the "Neue Völkerschaft," reprints an article by the London "News Chronicle's" correspondent William Forrest, who was a participant in a Soviet conducted tour through parts of the Russian zone in Germany. In this article, Forrest states that the travelling foreign correspondents visited, among other towns, Frankfurt on the Oder, with a peak time population of 85,000, now reduced to 65,000. While there, the correspondents were permitted to interview Frankfurt's Mayor (in the presence of Russian officers) who told them, among other things, that up to December first,

If he had had, you can be darn sure they'd brought that out." says he saw in the Times this morning, that they were going to prove he was active in Hollywood. says he wasn't active there. He was sticking close to his music. His activity may be. It's a matter of personal conversation, naturally he would gravitate toward guys like CHARLES C. CHAMBERS (ph) and those people. Those are his friends. There was one significant question they asked which may be a tip off on this. They asked him how much money he earned from RKO and he said he has to first consult his records. The chairman asked if it was as much as $20,000.00 and said over the period of four years it might be. says he doesn't consider himself a Hollywood person and doesn't go out for the big money, but considers himself a serious music composer. He picks up enough pictures to earn himself about $10,000.00 a year, his income between eight and ten thousand dollars a year. That requires one or two pictures a year. After that he goes into radio with his work. says that having this guy (ph), so we understand it here, one of the major things will be to get that
As "off-the-record" conference of "non-Communist liberals" will take place in Washington on January 6th, under the initiative of the Union for Democratic Action. The idea is to do something about organizing the progressive liberals to forestall Communist domination of liberal movements by the CIO. There were implications that Philip Murray might attend as well as other CIO figures identified as anti-Communists.

Eleanor Roosevelt and Chester Bowles are the endorsers.
